The Amador County Concert Band presents “Holiday Extravaganza”

Dec. 5th – A free concert will be presented by the 40-member Amador County Concert Band under the direction of Steve Chambers on Sunday, December 5th at 3pm. The program will be held at the Community Church of Pine Grove, 14045 Ponderosa Way, Pine Grove. Doors open at 2:30pm.

Featured music will be a special medley of music from “Polar Express”, music from “Rock Legends – the Beatles”, a medley of Holiday songs arranged by Leroy Anderson, “Sleigh Ride” by Leroy Anderson, a medley of Holiday favorites arranged in a “big band” style, the “Pirates of Penzance” arranged by John Philip Sousa, and more!

The Amador County Concert Band proudly represented Northern California in June 2010, when it was selected to perform in Washington D.C. for the National Community Concert Band Sousa Festival, a salute to the legendary march king, John Philip Sousa. Under former musical director Ernie Kappahn, the band gained very high recognition and since the band’s return, has gained new members, some traveling from as far away as Sonora, Placerville, El Dorado Hills, Cameron Park, and Sacramento.

Join us on December 5th for this wonderful free event. Doors open at 2:30pm so arrive a few minutes early for best seating....ample parking...music begins promptly at 3pm. Visit the band’s website at www.accband.org for additional information or to find out how to join the band.
